HOLIDAY SITE OCCUPATION AGREEMENT

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

1. Purpose

The purpose of this agreement (“the agreement”) is to clarify the terms and conditions associated with the occupancy and associated use of holiday site in a caravan park nominated in the attached schedule.

2. Commencement and Duration

This agreement commences on the date as stated in the schedule appended to and forming part of this agreement and ends when terminated in accordance with the provisions prescribed in this agreement.

3. Agreement to Comply With the Terms of This Agreement

The park owner and the occupant agree to comply with the terms of this agreement.

4. How Long Does This Agreement Last?

The fixed term of this agreement is for 12 months beginning on 01/07/19 and ending on 30/06/20.

5. What Happens When This Agreement Ends?

When the time for the agreement ends (that is when the fixed term ends):

- (a) the occupant can stay on the site at the same occupation fee unless the park owner has given the occupant at least 30 days notice in writing of the increase site fee and otherwise under the same terms unless or until this agreement is ended in accordance with this agreement.
- (b) If the park owner wants to increase the occupation fee at any time after the fixed term ends, the park owner must give the occupant at least 30 days notice in writing.

6. Definitions

(“the Act”), and the Residential Tenancies (Caravan Parks and Moveable Dwellings Registration and Standards) Regulations 1999, (“the Regulation”), are the same as in the Act and the Regulations but with such modifications as are necessary to make them applicable to occupants of holiday sites.

In addition –

“A holiday site” means a site which has been reserved for an extended period upon which is situated a moveable dwelling and which is occupied from time to time on a non-residential basis.

“Nonresidential basis” means that the site is not occupied by a person who is using the site as his or her main place of residence.

“Occupants” mean those persons, who will have the right to occupy the site, including “nominated persons” and “additional permitted occupants”.

“Caravan park owner” means the owner or the manager of the caravan park.

“The Principal Occupant” (“the Occupant”) means the occupant who signs on behalf of and represents all the occupants of the holiday site.

“A Fixed Term Holiday Site Occupation Agreement” means an agreement to occupy a holiday site for a fixed term generally not exceeding a period beyond 12 months.

“Dwelling” means a registerable moveable dwelling (RMD) or unregisterable moveable dwelling (UMD)

7. Residential Use Voids the Agreement

The agreement applies to occupancy on a non-residential basis only. The agreement does not apply should any of the occupants use the site as their main place of residence. The agreement ceases immediately should that be the case.

PART 2. SITE FEES AND OTHER CHARGES

8. Payment of Fees and Other Charges

However, work performed must be completed by suitably qualified and licensed trade's people. Work cannot commence until production of copy of industry registration and public liability indemnity coverage. All proposed works must be approved by the park owner.
(See clause 29.)

22. Permitting Family Members of Occupant and Others to Temporarily Occupy the Site

- (a) The caravan park owner agrees to allow any family member of the occupant or any other person to temporarily occupy the site if he or she has the prior permission of the occupant and the caravan park owner
- (b) The caravan park owner and occupant agree that the caravan park owner may demand proof that the family member of the occupant or any other person has the permission of the occupant to occupy the site. The proof may be given in person, in writing or over the phone.

Section 2. Obligations of the Occupant

23. Occupant's Use of Site

- (a) The occupant agrees that the site will be used for holiday purposes only.
- (b) The occupant agrees to not use the site consecutively for more than the number of days permitted as set out in Schedule 1.

24. Number of Persons Occupying the Site

The occupant agrees not to allow more than the number of persons agreed with the caravan park owner to occupy the site as set out in the caravan park rules.

25. Occupants to Observe Caravan Park Rules

The occupant agrees to observe the caravan park rules made from time to time as set out in the caravan park rules.

26. Offensive Behavior

The occupant agrees not to interfere with or cause or permit interference with, or allow any person that the occupant invites into the caravan park to interfere with:

- (a) The reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of any neighbour of the occupant or any other person lawfully in the caravan park or any staff member of the caravan park, or
- (b) The proper use and enjoyment of the caravan park by the other occupants or staff of the caravan park.

27. Occupant Must Not Use the Site for Illegal Purposes

- (a) The occupant must not use or permit the use of the site, the dwelling or the caravan park for any illegal purpose, and
- (b) Not to cause or permit a nuisance.

28. Cleanliness and Damage to the Site

The occupant agrees:

- (a) To keep the site clean and tidy
Maintain the site and dwelling in a manner and condition that does not detract from the general standard of the caravan park as set by the caravan park owner from time to time.

The occupant agrees not to erect or construct any fixture or structure, or renovate, alter or add to the dwelling or the site without the caravan park owner's written permission.

30. Occupants Responsibility for Actions of Others

The occupant agrees to be responsible to the park owner for any act or omission by any person the occupant allows on the site, or elsewhere in the caravan park, who breaks any of the terms of the agreement (including any park rules for occupants that are terms of this agreement).

31. Occupants Duty to Pay Fees

The occupant agrees to pay site fees and any other charges as set out in Schedule 1 on the due dates and in the agreed manner.

32. Keys and Opening Devices

The occupant agrees to return any key or other opening device provided to the occupant, when this agreement is terminated.

33. Selling the Dwelling

The occupant agrees not to sell the occupant's dwelling while it is on the site without the prior written permission of the caravan park owner.

34. Agreement Not To Transfer without Consent

(a) The occupant agrees not to transfer the whole or part of the occupant's interest under this agreement without the caravan park owner's prior written permission.

(b) The occupant agrees that the caravan park owner may require a new occupation agreement to be entered into.

35. Moveable Dwelling Must Comply With Law

The occupant agrees to make sure that the dwelling complies with any regulations under any Act with which it is required to comply.

36. Condition of Moveable Dwelling and Other Structures.

The occupant agrees to make sure that the moveable dwelling and any other structure that the occupant is permitted to erect is kept in a condition allowing it to be moved by means of its own chassis. For the avoidance of doubt a moveable dwelling must at all times be capable of being moved within 24 hours to another site by a cabin moving vehicle (or other heavy lifting equipment) so that the move can reasonably be carried out in a way that will not damage the cabin and that having been moved the undamaged cabin would then be capable of re-use at another site having been installed at the new site within the same period of 24 hours. Any cabin that subsists (through the effluence of time or otherwise) in a state (as determined in the absolute discretion of the caravan park owner) where it can only be moved by way of destruction or deconstruction (and cannot otherwise be removed easily by virtue of its own chassis) will be deemed not to be a moveable dwelling in accordance with this agreement. The Occupant acknowledges that if his or her dwelling is no longer a moveable dwelling in accordance with this clause, then the Occupant will be in breach of this clause and the Agreement.

PART 4. WHEN CAN SOMEONE ELSE COME ONTO THE SITE?

37. Park Owner's Access to the Site.

The park owner agrees that the park owner, the park manager or any person authorized by the park owner, during the currency of this agreement, may enter the site only in the following circumstances:

- (a) In an emergency (including entry for the purpose of carrying out urgent repairs)
- (b) To carry out regular maintenance and caretaking of the site, such as lawn mowing etc.
- (c) If electricity, water or gas is supplied to the occupant by the park owner, to inspect and read meters supplied for those services
- (d) To carry out functions required under any legislation
- (e) In the circumstances set out in Schedule 1
- (f) If the occupant agrees
- (g) To address any breach of this agreement or breach of park rules
- (h) If there is a good reason for the park owner to believe the site is abandoned.

PART 5. SALE OF GOODS OR MOVEABLE DWELLING

38. Duty In Relation To Goods or a Dwelling Left On Site by Occupant

- (a) The caravan park owner will take reasonable care of any goods including the dwelling left on site by the occupant of a holiday site
- (b) The caravan park owner may dispose of goods which are perishable food stuffs, worthless or dangerous.
- (c) The caravan park owner must take reasonable steps to notify the occupant or the owner of the goods and/or dwelling as to when and from where the goods and/or dwelling may be collected
- (d) At the caravan park owner's discretion a dwelling may be stored at a daily fee set out in Schedule 1.

39. Sale Of Goods Or Any Dwelling Left Behind By An Occupant Of A Holiday Site.

39.1 The caravan park owner may consider abandoned and thus sell any goods or any dwelling stored under clause 38 if 90 days has elapsed since the

- (a) last occupancy, or
- (b) date upon which the agreement ended, or
- (c) last financial transaction with the occupants, whichever is the latest, providing all reasonable steps have been taken, without success, to contact the owner of the goods and/or dwelling

39.2 The caravan park owner may act as though the goods or dwelling have been abandoned if the owner of the goods or dwelling fails to collect and pay the reasonable costs of handling and storing the goods or dwelling.

39.3 The caravan park owner must give at least 60 days written notice of the intention to act under section 39.1b

39.4 The owner of the goods or dwelling to be sold under section 39.1(a) or 39.1(b) may at any time before the goods or dwelling are sold, collect the goods or dwelling if he or she pays the caravan park owner the reasonable cost incurred in-

- (a) moving, handling, storing or paying for the moving, handling and storing of the goods,

- (b) trying to notify the owner of the goods or dwelling
- (c) organizing the sale of goods or dwelling (advertising)

39.5 The caravan park owner is not obliged to surrender any goods or dwelling to a former occupant unless all costs incurred under section 39 or 40 together with any outstanding fees or other charges are paid to the caravan park owner

39.6 A caravan park owner who sells any goods and/or dwelling in accordance with sections 39 or 40 is entitled to the proceeds of any such sale.

40. The Sale of Dwelling on Site

The owner of a dwelling on a holiday site in a caravan park may sell the dwelling or instruct the owner of the caravan park in writing to sell the dwelling while it remains on site, provided:

40.1 The occupant notifies the owner of the caravan park in writing of his or her intention to sell the dwelling, and

40.2 The occupant informs any prospective purchaser of the dwelling that the sale of the dwelling voids any current agreement that the occupant has with the caravan park owner, and

40.3 The occupant advises any prospective purchaser that they make their own inquiries of the caravan park owner with respect to the prospects of entering in to an agreement enabling them to occupy the holiday site in question

40.4 The caravan park owner is not obliged to enter in to a holiday site agreement with the purchaser of any dwelling sold on a site.

40.5 The park has first right of refusal to buy on the purchase price agreed to between the occupant of the dwelling for sale and the purchaser

40.6 The park will give consideration to entering into a new agreement with a purchaser only upon full clearance of any monies owing to the park by both the purchaser and the occupant,

41. Payment of Commission or Transfer Fee upon Sale of a Dwelling on Site

The caravan park owner is entitled to receive from the occupant a commission or transfer fee upon the sale of the dwelling as set out in Schedule 1. The Occupant acknowledges that this fee is consideration of the caravan park owner allowing a new site owner to remain on the site.

PART 6. ENDING THIS AGREEMENT

Section 1. When Can The Agreement Be Ended?

42. Ending the Agreement

The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that this agreement can be terminated in one or more of the following circumstances:

42.1 If the caravan parks owner or the occupant gives notice of termination under this part,

42.2 If a person having superior title to that of the caravan park owner becomes entitled to possession of the site

42.3 If a person succeeding to the title of the caravan park owner (for example, a purchaser) becomes entitled to possession of the site to the exclusion of the occupant

42.4 If the occupant vacates the site

42.5 If the occupant abandons the site

42.6 If the occupant delivers up vacant possession of the site with the prior permission of the caravan park owner, whether or not that permission is subsequently withdrawn

42.7 If the fixed term ends, there is no provision for a continuing agreement and the caravan park owner or the occupant has terminated the agreement after the expiry of the next period for which the occupation fee was payable.

42.8 If the caravan park is sold

42.9 At the commencement of any new agreement between the occupant and the caravan park owner.

Section 2. When Can The Occupant End The Agreement?

43. Termination by Occupant on Breach of Agreement

43.1 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that the occupant may give the caravan park owner a notice of termination of this agreement if the caravan park owner has breached a term of this agreement

43.2 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination given under this clause must give at least 7 days notice as to the day on which vacant possession of the site will be delivered up to the caravan park owner.

44. Notice of Termination by Occupant without Any Reason

44.1 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that the occupant may give notice of termination of this agreement without having to give a reason

44.2 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination given under this clause must give at least 90 days notice as to the day on which vacant possession of the site will be delivered up to the caravan park owner

Section 3. When Can The Caravan Park Owner End This Agreement?

45. Termination on Breach of Agreement

45.1 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that the caravan park owner may give notice of termination of this agreement to the occupant if the occupant has breached any term of this agreement.

45.2 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that the notice of termination given under this clause must not specify a day earlier than 7 days after the day on which the notice is given as the day on which vacant possession of the site is to be or will be delivered up to the caravan park owner.

45.3 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination given by the caravan park owner on the grounds of a breach of the agreement to pay occupation fees has no effect unless the fees have remained unpaid in breach of this agreement for not less than 14 days before the notice is given.

45.4 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination given by a caravan park owner on the ground of a breach of the agreement to pay occupation fees is not ineffective merely because of any failure of the caravan park owner or the manager to make a prior formal demand for payment of the fees.

46. Notice of Termination by Park Owner without Any Reason

46.1 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that the caravan park owner may give notice of termination of this agreement without having to give any reason.

46.2 The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination given under this clause must give at least 90 days notice as to the day on which vacant possession of the site will be delivered up to the caravan park owner.

Section 4 Notices of Termination

47. Notices of Termination

The caravan park owner and the occupant agree that a notice of termination must:

- 47.1 be in writing, and
- 47.2 state the address and site number of the site, and
- 47.3 be signed by the person giving it, and
- 47.4 dated, and
- 47.5 allow the required period of time, and
- 47.6 give the date the occupant intends to, or is required to, give vacant possession, and
- 47.7 give the reasons for ending the agreement (if any).

Section 5 Miscellaneous
